

THE STANDING CONFERENCE OF ORIENTAL
ORTHODOX CHURCHES PRESENTS:
THE FIRST EVER MIDWEST REGIONAL
CONCELEBRATION OF THE DIVINE LITURGY

A Call for Orthodox Solidarity in The Face of Persecution

When: Saturday April 25, 2015.
9:30am to 3pm

Where: St. Mark Coptic Orthodox Church
2100 East Pleasant Valley Road
Seven Hills, Ohio, 44131

Main Events:

1. Concelebrated Divine Liturgy
2. Conference Discussions: A Call for Orthodox Solidarity in the Face of Persecution (immediately following the Divine Liturgy).
 - a. Syrian-Armenian Genocide - Past to Present
 - b. Persecution in Eritrea & the imprisonment of Patriarch Antonios

With participation of the following local Oriental Orthodox Churches:

1. Coptic Orthodox Church
2. Syrian Orthodox Church
3. Armenian Orthodox Church
4. Malankara Syriac Orthodox Church
5. Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church
6. Eritrean Orthodox Tewahedo Church

Donations go towards the persecuted Christians in the Middle East and North Africa.

Forget-me-not Flower is the Official emblem of the Centennial of the Armenian Genocide.